Who are 7Side Ltd?

With over 27 years experience, 7Side's Company Formations department has positioned itself as one of the leading formation services in the UK. Customers will benefit from knowledgeable and experienced staff with the assurance of professional guidance in the process of forming a company.

All new companies are incorporated electronically with the customer's choice of name, within an average of a few hours and an optional guaranteed same day service is available.

The Certificate of Incorporation will be e-mailed directly to your computer, thus eradicating the need to wait for the hard copy and enabling trading to commence immediately.

7Side's Standard Registration service allows your company to be formed electronically with the actual officers in place at the point of registration giving the following benefits over forming companies using nominees as first officers:

- Compliant with the implementation of the Companies Act 2006
- Lower formation cost
- No live signatures necessary
- True officers are visible on Companies House records immediately, enabling the speedier opening of bank accounts
- The complete company package dispatched within 24 hours
